

Revising Index Methodology

In order to enhance the index investability, Shenzhen Securities Information Co., Ltd. decided to revise existing index methodology. The details are as follows:

1. Change the index name and short name to CNI Commercial Satellite Communication Industry Index and CNICSCIX, while the index code (980018) remains unchanged.
2. Modify the index universe to “Company business classified as satellite communication networking equipment and commercial services, ground communication equipment and services and other fields related to new generation communication technology.”
3. Adjust the weighting method to “The total weight of constituents no less than 50% and the weight of individual constituent no more than 15% for the field of satellite communication networking equipment and commercial services, the weight of individual constituent from other fields no more than 10%, the total weight of the top 5 constituents does not exceed 60% in each periodic review.”

The revision will be implemented on October 24, 2023. For more details, please refer to CNI Index website (www.cnindex.com.cn).
